Entrex PCI Releases First Issue of 'AlternativeMonthly Report;' Results Contrary to Economic

July 8, 2008 12:16 p.m.

CHICAGO, July 8 /PRNewswire/ -- The Entrex Private Company Index (PCI) announces that the first issue of its new publication "AlternativeMonthly research resource for alternative investors in private companies includes overall Index statistics, private company CEO sentiment data, employment data portfolio companies.

Featured companies range from $3M - $60M in annual revenue for 2007 and the group reflects a median 2007-over-2006 revenue growth rate of 44.5% diverse range of industry sectors and North American geographical locations.

Each company's profile includes revenue statistics in the form of a chart comparing their three-year performance trends, by quarter, to the growth trends DJIA, NASDAQ Composite Index, S&P Small Cap 600 and a select group of public micro cap peers -- all during the corresponding time period.

Stephen H. Watkins, founder and CEO of Entrex, shares his views about importance of the report by saying, "the companies featured in this inaugural is institutional capital investors may be missing because, today, there are limited avenues to invest in companies with revenues of $250 Million and lower. companies that provide jobs, needed products and services and see average revenue growth well over 20% a year."

The PCI is published by Entrex, The Capital Market System for Private Companies(TM), creators of the novel TIGRcub(TM) security.

The inaugural issue of "AlternativeMonthly" is available by sneak preview online at <http://www.privatecompanyindex.com>. Contact Entrex directly if you'd like a printed copy. The next edition of the "AlternativeMonthly" is scheduled for release in Q3 2003 and will fea
